Mr. Cock-A-Doodle-Doo and Mrs. Penny Nov 01 2020

Farmer Paul lived on a farm where he had a rooster named Mr. Cock-A-Doodle-Doo. One day, Farmer Paul went to town to buy a new hen that he named Penny. Upon arrival back at the farm, the other hens were not very welcoming to Penny. This made her very sad. One day while out in the farmyard, another hen was in danger, and Penny flew over to save her, and the rest is a very happy story! Remember bullying is not cool, not even in the barnyard!

Cock-a-Doodle-Doo-Bop! Sep 11 2021 A rooster tries to change his tune in this jazzy picture book that's perfect for scatting aloud from the author of Naked! and I'm Bored, comedian Michael Ian Black. Mel the rooster's boring old cock-a-doodle-doo is making him cock-a-doodle-blue—until one day he decides to jazz it up with something brand-new: the cock-a-doodle-doo-bop! But while Mel scats and trumpets away to his revised refrain, the rest of the barnyard isn't getting into the groove.

Because they want the sun, and the sun won't rise to Mel's creative interpretation of his standard cock-a-doodle-crow. So the barnyard residents will have to band together and compromise to bring about a fresh day in a fresh way!

2021 This book is a compilation of three short stories. The first one is about how sheep farms started and expanded. Which is metaphorically about how we formed communities, states and countries. The second story is about how a man became powerful and start to control a small village in its natural growth. The third story is about my personal conversation with God himself about Earth.
